

several concepts for each website and then narrowing the choices and revising the design. I am also personally involved in developing the designs into functional websites. This is done by leveraging an existing database of content for procedures, photos etc. Technical knowledge of Cascading Style Sheets was also key to the execution of these sites as ASPS is completely CSS driven.

08/2005 – 12/2005 McDonald's Corporation Oakbrook, IL

Responsible for the planning, development and implementation of bi-lingual content solution for www.mcdonalds.com Utilizing McDonald's existing CMS system, Day Communiqué, I instituted a method of publishing co-existing website pages for both English and Spanish. I was responsible for working with a 3rd party translation company and implementing the bi-lingual content for 500+ web pages. This included translating text, images and Flash based applications.

11/2001 – 11/2006 AHEADOFMYTIME.COM Geneva, IL

As owner of a web design and development firm I am responsible for every aspect of the web development process. Duties include concepting, brainstorming, market research, supervising design, content creation, technical development, search engine optimization, web server configuration, scheduled updates and post mortem evaluations. While I do a great deal of this myself I do also manage several freelance sources that help with copy writing, design and some development of these websites. Multi-tasking is a must to keep up with the various stages of the multiple projects that are in production at any given moment. Work includes:

9/2000 – 11/2001 Walt Disney Internet Group - ABC.com Burbank, CA
Senior Web Developer / Team Lead

- Responsible for leading a team of six developers in the complete redesign of ABC.com. Redesign included migrating all of ABC.com in proprietary content management system called GoPublish. This CMS system is still in use on ABC.com and was built with enough flexibility to allow a redesign each Fall Season without much modification.
- Reporting to the Director of Technology, I also established standards for software, processes, and implementation of new technologies.
- Working closely with Primetime and Daytime content producers to obtain a consistent "look and feel" similar to ABC Television's on-air presence.
- Also responsible for establishing a maintenance schedule to insure the timeliness of content.
- Lead multimedia developer for ABC.com. This included streaming video, Flash and Shockwave game development, and wireless game development using XML.
- In addition to multimedia / game development, I am also heavily involved in standard web development using HTML, DHTML, JavaScript, cascading style sheets, JSP, Java, etc.
